

Louisiana Conference of United Methodist Women September 2017 Newsletter

Marjorie S. Franklin, Conference President

If you claim to be religious but do not control your tongue, you are fooling yourself and your religion is worthless. James 1:26. If people would only think before they speak, our world would be a much better place! The way you use your tongue is your responsibility. So make sure your emotions are under Jesus Christ's control.

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! I would like to extend happy birthday and anniversary blessings to all who are celebrating in this month of September. May God's gift of love and happiness be bestowed upon each of you.

Our Louisiana Conference UMW Annual Meeting is just around the corner. Our theme for this year is "Caring for our Father's World" Genesis 2:15. The host church will be 1st UMC, Bossier City. There is still time to register if you haven't already done so. More information along with the registration form can be found on our UMW website at www.umwla.org.

This year at Annual Meeting we will be highlighting 2 upcoming, exciting events: The 150th year anniversary celebration of UMW and our 2018 Assembly. Lots of information as well as slide shows and presentations will be a huge part of our meeting. You will not want to miss out on this, so please spread the word and get registered!

Don't forget to check out our new and improved UMW website. We're all doing a lot of Mission work and other activities in our Conferences, in our Districts and in our local units. I want to encourage you to contact your communications chairperson and send in photos of your activities to be posted to the web site. Kudo's to all for the magnificent work that you are doing in UMW to 1st, honor God and 2nd, to make our Louisiana Conference United Methodist Women the best that God intends for it to be! See you in Bossier City!

With Love, Blessings and Peace
